Product Description

A great fit for the youngest of toddlers, the Train Playhouse adds a layer of creative, exciting fun to the playground. This visually-striking, lifelike train engine is made from high-quality polyethylene plastic, making it a great investment for playgrounds and parks. Young ones who climb aboard the Train Playhouse will be engrossed in the imaginative fun this locomotive has to offer as they punch their ticket to excitement and outdoor fun. The perfect addition to any park or schoolyard, the Train Playhouse features partial Tic Tac Toe panels, which enable intuitive, engaging fun for kids ages 6-23 months, who are still developing their motor skills and hand-eye coordination. The Train Playhouse also features hand grips on either side that help young ones climb aboard the train and safely dismount. With its unique, brightly-colored e...
